Thanks to its solid design and carefully selected materials, Abachus is capable of withstanding all weather conditions. Abachus combines perfectly with the

Extremis

Preparing lunch whilst standing up or appreciating the freshly cooked meal seated down? You don't need multiple tables for that, simply adapt the tabletop to every occasion.

This trendy and laid-back coffee shop is the perfect setting for the AMAi table in galvanized steel. While the metallic and white colors match the industrial feel, the oak veneer complements the low-slung lighting and potted plants. An ideal spot to enjoy a latte with some home-made cake!

Extremis

It's time to steal the show! With the perfect height to prepare meals and drinks, and convenient storage, accessible from all sides, you have an outdoor cooking corner to share delicious togetherness with friends. a high table or rather a traditional height?
Comfortably seated or standing up? This table

Anker

Sailors drop the anchor when they have reached a place where they want to stay. Sit down around Anker and touch base with your friends or family. Anchoring is about getting a grip on what is really important in life and disconnecting a bit from the daily rush at work.

All our designs are original creations and protected by intellectual property rights.

After a day of learning Japanese crafts such as making bamboo ware, dyeing fabric, working wood and throwing ceramics, it's time to take a break at the triangular Anker tables in the courtyard of the Shizuoka Traditional Craft Arts Center.

Take some time with family to wind down at Anker. Hot tea, a fun board game, and sitting together around this hexagonal table make the recipe for a day filled with togetherness.

Wait for your train at Anker, on the mezzanine of the Nantes train station, designed by AG architecture intérieur.

Anker

The compact 6-seater picnic table encourages one-on-one conversations, but its appearance invites people to come on board. Just slide in at the sides of the benches, without having to lift your

Bistroo

© Design by Dirk Wynants for Extremis, 2018

A romantic Paris bistro or cozy balcony is the perfect habitat for Bistroo. Instead of sitting opposite each other, you sit side by side at the Bistroo, observing and commenting the world as it's passing by.

All our designs are original creations and protected by intellectual property rights.

With views over the Japanese mountains of Shizuoka, this traditional arts and crafts school placed some Bistroos in the courtyard to take a peaceful break. Seated shoulder to shoulder, the pupils see the world passing by from the same point of view.

In the ever-sunny South of France, Bistrou enriches the garden of this seaside villa. It's the perfect spot to close your eyes and listen to the birds singing their morning songs.

Extremis

With Bistroo around, you'll gladly exchange the office for a moment in the sun! Thanks to the tabletop extension, you easily create some extra space without losing the charms of this jaunty table.

Bistroo

When you see the Bistroo you will immediately realise what the double 'oo' is all about. The rounded backrests provide support as you sit side by side, watching the world go by. Three legs, two seats and one tabletop are the basis of this innovative concept. This design makes it perfectly stable on any surface, and it is faster to stack and lock away than individual tables and chairs.

Gargantua

© Design by Dirk Wynants for Extremis, 1994

According to an American study, parents and children currently only spend an average of 15 minutes together per day. To improve the quality of this togetherness, Dirk Wynants wanted to create a table where children could comfortably sit at the same height as the adults to enable better communication.

A quick change of scenery? This versatile bench can be used in more than one way. Take a seat on the bench or turn around to the opposite direction - the backrest now doubles as a tabletop. This design adds comfort to each street, rooftop, garden or balcony.

Hopper bench

To create an attractive and lively urban area, Okayama city in Japan has placed 30 Hopper benches along the main street. By shifting from a 'car-centered' to a 'people-first' area, the city has created a spacious area that is fun to walk along. Now, people from all ages feel comfortable using the public space that has shifted from a parking space into a meeting area.

Inumbrina is a lighter version of Inumbra, but offers the same advantages: it has the same innovative beauty, and its flat design also makes it very wind resistant.

The beautiful terrace of the PWC offices in Lucerne, Switzerland, makes the most of the view across the old town and offers outdoor space for informal gatherings, work or meetings.

Let's have some (iced) tea at Mr Ito's garden in Nagano, Japan.

Inumbrina

The major difference between Inumbrina and Inumbrina lies in how they are operated. When converting to a thinner and lighter central pole, the challenge was to replace the handle and spindle system. Our technical team came up with an ingenious pulley and rope system. Opening and closing the parasol with a rope turns out to be really easy, and even faster! Cover included.

Kosmos

© Design by Dirk Wynants for Extremis, 2008

Kosmos is inspired by a yacht's cockpit: "When space is limited, like on a boat, we need to be more creative." Kosmos is the alternative to a combination of table, chairs, lounge chairs, sun protection, and so on. All functionalities combined in one!

All our designs are original creations and protected by intellectual property rights.

Extremis

Kosmos is the perfect all-in-one piece of furniture. Working outside or lounging in the sun, you choose!

Extremis

Kosmos

Kosmos has a round shape for more intense conversations and cosier cuddling at night. At its lowest position, the optional adjustable table offers a completely flat surface, transforming Kosmos into a giant lounger. This multi-purpose set takes you right through the day – from breakfast to sunbathing – without stuffing your roof terrace full of furniture.

Kosmos shade

© Design by Dirk Wynants for Extremis, 2008

We wanted to devise an umbrella that did not stand in the way when it was closed. The original (and patented) innovation is that it simply opens and closes horizontally like a fan... Or a bird's wings. Design by nature!

Creating elegant shade to your pool sofa? The Kosmos square shade is a freestanding umbrella that supports a clean and balanced look while adding ample shade.

Idyllic pontoon, Lake Lucerne / Switzerland.

Kosmos shade

Kosmos shade is an ingenious design that opens horizontally like a fan, offering excellent wind resistance (wind force 6 on the Beaufort scale). It hangs low enough to provide lots of shade, and is perfect for placing next to the Kosmos table and seat combination or any other furniture. Hidden magnets keep the shade open.

Marina

© Design by Metrica for Extremis, 2012

This particular design once again shows the 'Tools for Togetherness' philosophy of Extremis. The seemingly endless table is perfect for entertaining large groups of guests, friends and family.

All our designs are original creations and protected by intellectual property rights.

The reed green Marina picnic is the preferred table for an outdoor lunch.

This Marina combo set with matching Captain's Chairs in a gorgeous earth color integrates effortlessly into a natural landscape or urban setting.

Marina

The Trinseo lunchroom by BroekBakema and Aerts&Co is not your everyday - dull - canteen, it's more like a contemporary coffee shop with a hanging jungle garden. At the Marina combo table, employees find a spot to get to know new colleagues while having enough space to enjoy that well-deserved lunch.

The Marina combo table enriches this patio. Notice how there's also a Marina placed indoors, what a fluid transition between outside and inside.

Citizen M hotel La Défense,

Extremis

The fixed benches or a Captain's Chair? At the Papyrus white Marina combo, you always gather gracefully.

Extremis

Escaping from the indoor office-buzz works wonders. Meetings and brainstorming mostly happen outside the Extremis HQ meeting rooms. Can you blame us?

Marina

A table that can be as long as your guest list or as short as you need for a family of four: the Marina is designed for intimate gatherings or large meetings. You and your guests can easily move about and engage with everyone. This table is the ultimate conversation playground.

Pantagruel

At Endo Lighting in Tokyo, Japan, this indoor patio brings the outdoor elements indoors. The Pantagruel picnic tables bring people together, and its round shape includes everybody equally. The wooden seats and tabletop add a warm touch, while the shadow play adds an exciting element to the space.

Around the weatherproof Pantagruel high table fit eight chairs and even more stools.

Pantagruel

The Pantagruel round picnic table seats eight. When combined with the wood used for the tabletop and benches it forms a durable outdoor picnic set. Pantagruel also features a Lazy Susan, to

Picnik

© Design by Dirk Wynants & Xavier Lust for Extremis, 2002

The launch of this design elevated a simple 'tête à tête' to an extremely romantic or even philosophical converse. Picnik became a real design classic, thanks to its iconic shape.

Picnik

This table for two is in fact much more than just a table seating two people. Picnik was of course primarily designed as a table and bench seat combination for small outdoor spaces. But thanks to its striking looks – both solid and stylized at the same time – Picnik is also frequently used indoors. One flat aluminium sheet is transformed into a Picnik, thanks to a number of strategic incisions and folds.

Pontsūn

© Design by Dirk Wynants for Extremis, 2015

This extra wide table was baptized Pontsūn, Japanese for pontoon. Indoors or outdoors, get together with a lot of friends around this large yet elegant table.

Ponstūn

The Ponstūn table & Captain's Chairs are a perfect match indoors or outdoors.

To decide on a dream garden at the HQ of landscape architect Monbaliu is to decide on each detail of the plan. At the extra wide Pontsūn table, the garden planners find plenty of space to display all the samples and sketches, and clients get the freedom of choice.

Combined with Captain's Chairs this extra-wide table easily seats eight or more loved ones.

Ponstūn

This extra wide and long wooden dining table looks like a pontoon boat taken ashore. The folded steel legs that support the spacious, but thin tabletop were inspired by origami. Whether placed indoors or outdoors, this large dining table seems to float in mid-air. Normally it seats six to eight people, but more chairs can be added for all occasions.

Sensu

© Design by Dirk Wynants for Extremis, 2022

This free hanging, tilting shade combines the serenity of flat design with the functionality of a hand fan system. Thanks to its unique design, Sensu catches the sun with a variety of positions and doesn't take up any space on your table.

Extremis

With a rotating and tilting feature, this Papyrus white Senu offers refreshing shade where most needed throughout the day. A light lunch at the Marina combo and later a dive in the pool... Who doesn't love to indulge in the summertime?

Sensu

A big patio and a big sofa... need much shade? Not an issue for this Sensu duo diamond shade. With two canopies hanging on the same pole, this shade doesn't take up important patio space, while casting a vast shadow.

Sensu

Offering refreshing shade is a must when offering delicious dishes, preferably without cutting out on patio space with different parasol poles and bulky bases. Thanks to the smart design, the Sensu Quattro diamond effortlessly casts a shadow of almost 30m². Four floating canopies are all attached to the same central pole that can be fixed in the ground. Tripping hazards and a loss of space are now a thing of the past; it's time to enjoy a refreshing lunch!

Extremis

The flat canopy of the Sensu shade has a calming effect on any patio. The floating shade opens horizontally and thanks to its unique tilting and rotating design, it follows the sun throughout the day without effort. The perfect tool for a cool moment!

Lofty lounging becomes a dream come trough on this rooftop patio. The Sensu duo diamond throws some welcome shade without taking up any precious space. With built-in storage pouches, the Walrus pillows are easily stored in the sofa itself, which is quite a bonus on the 23rd floor.

Sensu

This free-hanging cantilever parasol combines the beauty of flat design with the functionality of a hand fan system. Unlike traditional center-pole umbrellas, Sensu doesn't take up any space on and under your table - both opened and closed. Rotate and/or cantilever the white, taupe, or black shade to follow the sun throughout the day.
